CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION: This activity has been approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™

It is the policy of the Center for Continuing Education at Tulane University Health Sciences Center to plan and implement all of its educational activities in accordance with the ACCME® Essential Areas and Policies to ensure balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor. In accordance with the Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education, everyone who is in a position to control the content of an educational activity certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ is required to disclose all financial relationships with any ineligible companies within the prior 24 months. Individuals who do not disclose are disqualified from participating in a CME activity. Individuals with potential for influence or control of CME content include planners and planning committee members, authors, teachers, educational activity directors, educational partners, and others who participate, e.g. facilitators and moderators. This disclosure pertains to relationships with Ineligible Companies. Relevant Financial Relationships are financial relationships of any amount with ineligible companies if the educational content is related to the business lines or products of the ineligible company. Providers are required to collect information from all those individuals in control of educational content about ALL of their financial relationships with ineligible companies within the prior 24 months. The provider is then responsible for determining which relationships are relevant. Any real or apparent conflicts of interest related to the content of the presentations must be resolved prior to the educational activity. Disclosure of off-label, experimental or investigational use of drugs or devices must also be made known to the audience.

Important Information

This Call for Abstract brochure is for the 2025 Southern Regional Meeting. To submit your abstract electronically go to <https://srm2025.abstractcentral.com>. It is required of all abstract submitters to complete the CME Disclosure questions for each co-author in order to submit your abstract. The questions are available when you log in to submit your abstract. For further information on the Regional Meetings please visit the SSCI website (<https://www.ssciweb.org>) or the SSPR website (www.southern-spr.org). It is REQUIRED that you submit your abstract electronically. For technical support, please contact ScholarOne directly: Phone: (North America): 855-258-5858; (EMEA) +44 8003288044 or email: s1abstractshelp@clarivate.com. Technical Support Hours: 12:00 AM-8:30 PM ET Monday-Friday. There is no technical support on Saturday or Sunday. If other questions arise, email sarah@smcglobal.uk for assistance.

Information for Students, Trainees, Fellows, and Jr. Faculty

The SRM will accept abstract submissions and the top scoring abstracts will be given the opportunity to give an oral presentation or poster presentation as well as be eligible for research awards. The abstracts will continue to be published in The American Journal of the Medical Sciences. Apply for awards as part of the abstract submission process. We strongly encourage Fellows/Jr. Faculty to submit abstracts to the 2025 meeting. This meeting offers an atmosphere that allows networking among physician-scientists.

Abstract Policies

No revisions or changes will be accepted to submitted abstracts after the deadline.

1. All abstracts are peer-reviewed and ranked on the basis of scientific merit by experts in the category selected. The Program Committee uses these rankings to develop the final meeting program. Abstracts submitted for presentation will be published at the discretion of the Southern Regional Program Committee. The decisions of the Program Committee are final. Abstracts will not be reviewed if received after the deadline.
2. The committee will decide on oral and poster presentations. Submitter will not be given a choice upon submission.
3. SRM requires a nonrefundable abstract fee of $85.00 to cover the costs of processing, review and/or publication. This is separate from the registration fee. You must register and pay the registration fee to attend and present your abstract at the meeting. Include separate payment with each abstract submitted. Payment must be made by credit card (American Express, Discover, MasterCard, or Visa). No checks or purchase orders will be accepted.
4. INFORMED CONSENT, DISCLOSURE and COPYRIGHT: SRM and Tulane University have adopted guidelines for conflicts of interest. Investigators must disclose potential conflicts of interest in connection with abstracts presented at the regional meetings. It is the policy of the Center for Continuing Education at Tulane University Health Sciences Center to plan and implement all of its educational activities in accordance with the ACCME's accreditation requirements and policies to ensure balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor. In accordance with the ACCME's Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education, everyone who is in a position to control the content of an educational activity certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ is required to disclose financial relationships or the absence of relationships with any commercial interests within the past 24 months that creates a real or apparent conflict of interest. All potential conflicts of interest must be resolved prior to the activity. Individuals who do not disclose are disqualified from participating in the CME activity. Disclosure of off-label, experimental or investigational use of drugs or devices must also be made known to the audience.

In accordance with the law, including 17 United States Code, the lecturer is liable for the making of reproductions, including photocopies, of copyrighted material. If you plan to use any copyrighted material in slides, in materials you provide for inclusion in the published abstract or for distribution, in connection with your presentation you must certify that you have received permission from the copyright holder.

Each abstract must comply with the following:

- (1) personal responsibility for assuring that, at the time of the meeting for which it is being considered, the material herein will not have been published; (2) the material may have been presented at another regional or national meeting with a focused audience like a subspecialty meeting, such that the material will be new to the broader audience; (3) that if accepted, an eligible author is prepared to present it; (4) that any animal studies conform with the "Guiding Principles in the Care and Use of Animals" of the American Physiological Society; (5) that any human experimentation was conducted according to a protocol approved by an Institutional Review Board on ethics of human investigation (if no such Board exists, please state in a separate letter what standards were used to assess the ethical property of the protocol); and (6) that potential conflicts of interest will be disclosed at the time of the presentation of abstract. All potential conflicts of interest must be submitted in the disclosure form. Such information will not be available to the abstract review committee and will not prejudice review of the abstract.

Abstract Procedures

Step-by-Step Instructions for Electronic Submission.

To submit your abstract proceed to: <https://srm2025.abstractcentral.com/>

1. The first step is to log in with previous credentials or "Create an Account". Click on the "Create an Account" link in the left side menu bar. During account creation, please bear in mind:
 - A. All fields with a red asterisk are required.
 - B. Your e-mail address is the primary method of correspondence. All system e-mails and other notifications related to the meeting will be sent to this address. Please keep your e-mail address up-to-date!
 - C. The User ID and password that you create will be needed to log into the site after your account is created. Your User ID must be at least 6 characters long and can be a combination of letters and numbers. User ID and Password are case-sensitive.
 - D. The last step in creating your account is to request a "role." For example, if you are requesting the "Abstract Submission" role, you need only check the box and you will receive the role automatically. You will then be able to submit an abstract by logging in, then clicking on the "Submission" tab at the top of the page. If you are not the presenter, you must have all of their information to complete the submission.
2. Once you have logged in using your Username and Password, click on the Submission tab at the top of page, then on the "Create a New Submission" link located on the left-hand menu bar.
3. It is recommended that you step through the submission pages in a methodical manner, going page by page and completing the information as you go along, beginning with Step 1: Title/Body page.
4. The title must be brief and indicate clearly the nature of the investigation. The title should be entered in UPPERCASE letters. PLEASE DO NOT enter the title in mixed case. Abbreviations must not be used in the title.
5. Do not include authors or institutions in the body of your abstract. Type or copy/paste each section of the abstract body into their respective fields. On Step 1: Title/Body page, the body of the abstract must be separated into the fields designated as: Purpose, Methods, Results, and Conclusions, respectively.
6. You must complete the Disclosure and Copyright Information for ALL authors on Step 4: Authors/Disclosures.
7. There is a limit of 3000 characters for the text of your abstract submission. This does not include authors and institutions, only the abstract body. You may include 1 table and 1 image that does not count toward the character count.
8. Please enter all authors in the order they should appear in the heading of the abstract. Complete contact information is required for the Presenting Author and the Contact Author. Only name and email address are required for co-authors. If you (the Contact Author) are not the Presenter of an abstract, you will need to provide full contact information on the Presenter.
9. Enter all department and institutional affiliations. Department is an optional field. Only three (3) institutional affiliations will be allowed per author. You do not need to enter institutions in a particular order to be able to designate author affiliations.
10. Carefully check the proof of your abstract. Make sure all special characters and formatting is displaying properly in your proof. If you find errors, return to the appropriate page by clicking on the page name in the sidebar menu, and make your corrections.
11. If you have not completed all required sections/items you will not be able to submit your abstract. In the case of missing items, you will be prompted to enter the missing information. When all required information is entered, click "Submit" to submit your abstract. Payment is required to complete submission of the abstract.

Joint Plenary Session, Workshops and Symposia

Please register for the Southern Regional Meetings online at 2025 SRM Registration Site. The following plenaries and workshops are open to all meeting registrants; however, pre-registration is encouraged to guarantee space. The brochure is available online and can be downloaded by pasting the following links into your browser <https://www.ssciweb.org/> or <https://www.southern-spr.org/>

Joint Plenary Session

Saturday, February 15, 2025; 9:15 AM – 11:15 AM

"Updates in Immunology: Across the Lifespan from Newborn Screening to Novel Therapies for Children and Adults"

Immunology has recently gained attention for novel therapies and advancement in the treatment of immunological diseases for newborns, children, and adults. The focus of this plenary is to learn about updates in immunology across the lifespan from newborn screening of immunological diseases to updates and advancements in treatments for children and adults with a focus on congenital immunologic defects. Our speakers are Dr. Lisa Forbes, Director of the Jeffrey Modell Diagnostic & Research Center for Primary Immunodeficiencies at Texas Children's Hospital, and Dr. Steven Holland, Director of the Division of Intramural Research at the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases.

SSCI Presidential Symposium

Friday, February 15, 2025; 8:00 AM – 10:45 AM

"Research Among Us: How Our Region's Leaders are Advancing the Science Behind our Patient Care"

The institutions of our region have been and are responsible for major scientific advances in medicine. In this symposium, two department of medicine chairs in our region – Dr. Patricia Sime of Virginia Commonwealth University and Dr. Jane Freedman of Vanderbilt University – will detail the science through which they and their collaborators have changed patient care in the last several years and for the years ahead.

Manuscript Preparation and Peer-Reviewed Publication

This workshop will address in a highly interactive manner the multiple aspects of publication in scientific journals. Presenter will discuss preparation of materials, including the initial decision that the data are sufficient to justify publication. Issues related to manuscript writing will include length, focus, adherence to journal formats, and referencing. The editorial process from submission to publication will be described in-depth with particular attention to ways in which authors can interact with journal editors. Another section will cover ethical issues in publication including review boards, authorship, duplicate publication, intellectual property rights, and conflict of interest. There will be open discussion of sample manuscripts and outcomes derived from real experiences as well as time to address participant's unique questions. The presenter is Denise Goodman, Associate Editor of The Journal of Pediatrics.

Career Advancement for Clinician Educators: Creating and Navigating Your Career Roadmap

Our educator faculty will be presenting this workshop for the 11th year in 2025 and will address larger issues in career development for educators. Topics include: Creating a Career Roadmap, Identifying Mentors, Weighing Project Options, Negotiating for Your Career, and Finding Scholarship Success. Sessions will include case scenarios, audience participation, and didactic guidance. Attendees will be free to enter and leave the workshop to accommodate their individual needs.

Obtaining the Fellowship You Desire: Navigating the Subspecialty Match

The fellowship Match presents a unique set of challenges. In this session, residency and fellowship leadership will review the landscape of the fellowship Match and employ case scenarios to provide guidance on skills development, application strategies, interview approaches, and communication methods that are most likely to yield success in the Match. Attendees will be free to enter and leave the workshop to accommodate their individual needs.

The Successful Academician: From Patient Care to Research and Back

The SSCI/SRM is committed to helping individuals gain the skills needed for developing successful careers in academic medicine. In recognition of the importance of early career choices, this program will focus on key decisions that typically 'make or break' a career in academic medicine. The program targets trainees and early career faculty to engage in a didactic session designed to help participants through lectures, panel discussions, and open dialogue sessions that will address contract negotiations and the first job, discuss metrics for success, explore resilience and suggestions for engineering a career as an investigator and mentoring, among other themes.

Clinical Case Report Symposia

The Adult, Pediatric and Neonatal Clinical Case Symposia are devoted to the presentation and discussion of clinical case abstracts highlighting diagnostic and/or management issues. Clinical case descriptions, unique characteristics, treatment/interventions, and results/outcomes are all suitable for presentation at the Clinical Case Symposia. There will be three concurrent sessions: Adult, Neonatology and Pediatrics. At the time of abstract submission, the appropriate abstract category must be checked in order to be considered for the Adult, Neonatology or Pediatric Clinical Case Symposia.

SSCI Awards

Listed below is a description of awards for which you may apply on the abstract electronic submission form. Please choose the appropriate award on the pull-down menu if you are eligible and wish to receive an award. If the box is not checked, you will not be considered for an award. To be eligible for an award, you must apply at the time of abstract submission. To be eligible for the SSCI awards, you or your mentor (in the case of students and trainees) should be a member in good standing of SSCI. To apply for SSCI membership, go to <https://www.ssciweb.org/membership.php> for information and <https://www.ssciweb.org/new-membership-registration-form.php> to fill out the membership form. In the case of students, they are not eligible for membership, so only the mentor should be a member.

- ◆ Nathan Solomon & Irene Oransky-Solomon Medical Student Research Awards: These awards (2) are offered to recognize and encourage excellence in investigation by medical students during research training. Eligibility: Medical Students or Combined MD/PhD Students who are in research training or were in research training as of June 2024 are eligible. The applicant must be the first author of the abstract submitted in competition for the awards and plan to present the paper during the scientific sessions of the Southern Regional Meetings. Please note that it is necessary for the senior author to be a member of SSCI. Applicants for this award are encouraged to apply for the SSCI Student Award as well. For consideration of this award, the abstract has to suggest:
1) investigator-initiated 2) hypothesis-driven basic, clinical or behavioral research 3) conducted in a mode of discovery 4) whose study design, findings and conclusions satisfied the proposed hypothesis 5) findings have or will have the potential to advance the practice of medicine.
- ◆ SSCI Student Research Award: These awards recognize medical students, and combined MD/PhD students who are accomplished in research. Award funds are intended to defray the costs for participation in the meeting. The awardee must be the first author/presenter of the abstract accepted for presentation at the 2025 meeting. SSCI awardees must register for the meeting and be present at the SSCI Plenary session to receive this award.
- ◆ SSCI Trainee Research Award: These awards recognize residents and fellows who are accomplished in research. Award funds are intended to defray the costs for participation in the meeting. The awardee must be the first author/presenter of the abstract accepted for presentation at the 2025 meeting. SSCI awardees must register for the meeting and be present at the SSCI Plenary session to receive this award.
- ◆ SSCI Young Faculty Research Award: The purpose of these awards is to stimulate participation by faculty at the instructor and assistant professor level. Award funds are intended to defray the costs of participation in the meeting. The awards will be given to the young investigators with the top-rated abstracts. Awardee must be the first author/presenter of an abstract accepted for presentation at the 2025 meeting. SSCI awardees must register for the meeting and be present at the SSCI Plenary session to receive this award. Only faculty at the instructor and assistant professor level are eligible for these awards.
- ◆ Michael S. and Kathy J. Bronze Young Investigator Awards: The Michael S. and Kathy J. Bronze Young Investigator Awards are offered to recognize and encourage excellence in investigation by physicians and medical students during research training. Eligibility: combined MD/PhD students, interns, residents, and post-doctoral physicians who are in research training or were in research training as of June 2024 are eligible. Postdoctoral research training may be considered to extend for a period of up to three years and time spent in strictly clinical fellowships need not count against this. The applicant must be the first author of the abstract submitted in competition for the award and plan to present the paper during the scientific sessions of the Southern Regional Meetings. Please note that it is necessary for the senior author to be a member of SSCI. Applicants for this award are encouraged to apply for the appropriate SSCI Award as well. For consideration of this award, the abstract has to suggest: 1) investigator-initiated; 2) hypothesis-driven basic, clinical or behavioral research; 3) conducted in a mode of discovery; 4) whose study design, findings and conclusions satisfied the proposed hypothesis; and 5) findings have or will have the potential to advance the practice of medicine. Nomination letters from the senior investigator and/or mentor are required and should include a statement of the candidate's role in the study. Incomplete nomination letters will deem the abstract ineligible for consideration. The letters should be uploaded via the ScholarOne website upon submission of the abstract. For further information contact Joan Kemp, Executive Director, Southern Society for Clinical Investigation, email: jkemp5@tulane.edu.
- ◆ SSCI Tinsley Harrison Scholars: These prestigious awards are for physician-scientists at the following positions: senior Postdoctoral Fellows, Instructors, and first 5 years as Assistant Professor who primarily have a desire to pursue a research career. The purpose of these awards is to facilitate networking and career development among a community of young investigators as well as engagement with more senior leaders in SSCI who can serve as career sponsors and advisors. Airfare (economy), registration, and hotel expenses (up to $1,500) will be reimbursed for the individuals chosen for these awards. Tinsley Harrison Scholars are expected to attend all required programming events in order to receive reimbursement for their travels. You do not need to be a SSCI member to apply, but if selected, you will need to join. To apply, please send Joan Kemp (jkemp5@tulane.edu) an updated CV and a statement (300 words or less) detailing your career goals and how participation as a Tinsley Harrison Scholar fits with these goals no later than October 4, 2024. You must also submit an abstract of your original research for presentation to SRM 2025 for consideration of this award.

SSPR Awards

Listed below is a description of awards for which you may apply on the abstract electronic submission form. Please choose the appropriate award on the pull-down menu if you are eligible and wish to receive an award. If the box is not checked, you will not be considered for an award. To be eligible for an award, you must apply at the time of abstract submission. You must choose only one award matching the award to the society(ies) to which you and your mentor belong. You must choose one society. These awards are for work intimately related to pediatric research. MUST be an SSPR member or have a sponsor who is an SSPR member. The candidates must check the appropriate award box in order to be considered. You cannot apply for the other society awards if applying for SSPR Awards. The Member/Sponsor name must also be filled in on the electronic submission form.

◆ SSPR Young Investigator Award:

SSPR Young Investigator Award: Eligible candidates include students, residents, fellows, and young faculty who are currently within 7 years of the completion of training. Candidates must check the appropriate award box in order to be considered. Research and Quality Improvement abstracts will be considered. Case reports are not eligible for this award. The nominee must be first author/presenter of the abstract accepted for presentation. A letter from the senior investigator or sponsor that includes a statement that the work was performed by the nominee and fully addresses the role the candidate had in the work must be received by October 4, 2024 and uploaded via the ScholarOne website upon submission of your abstract. The sponsor letter requirement is waived for young faculty but required for trainees. Finalists will be notified in December 2024 and will present the study results at the SSPR Plenary Session at the 2025 SRM meeting. They will be required to submit a one page narrative describing their work, along with their presentation slides, 2 weeks prior to the meeting. Finalists will receive a stipend of $500 to facilitate attendance at the meeting and will have their meeting registration paid by the SSPR. Contact Jay Kerecman MD, Secretary, SSPR, with questions regarding this award. SSPR.Secretary@gmail.com

◆ SSPR Young Faculty Travel Award:

SSPR Young Faculty Travel Award: This award is to facilitate travel for outstanding young faculty. Research and Quality Improvement abstracts will be considered. Case reports are not eligible for this award. The candidate must be an Instructor or Assistant Professor and within 7 years of the completion of fellowship training. They must be first author/presenter of the abstract accepted for presentation. Approximately 5 awardees will receive a travel stipend of $500. They will also have their meeting registration paid by the SSPR. Faculty that are candidates for the SSPR Young Investigator Awards will automatically be entered in this competition

◆ SSPR/APA Trainee Travel Award: The candidate must be a student, resident, or fellow. They must be the first author/presenter of the abstract accepted for presentation. Approximately 25 candidates will receive a travel stipend of $500. Trainees that are candidates for the SSPR Young Investigator Awards will automatically be entered in this competition.
